J. W. Snell on Prospecting Trip

Word comes from Calgary, that Mr. Joseph W. Snell, well known old timer and respected pioneer of this district, has returned to Calgary after being in the mountains for the last six weeks. While up there, he staked and recorded a group of gold claims on behalf of a syndicate of Calgary business men, at the headwaters of Oldman and Quartz Creeks, in the Big Bend district. A crew has been at work for the past month clearing a pack trail to the claims and the men are now at work opening up the deposit.

The report further states that the outcrops indicate the presence of a large body of ore, and if the weather continues favorable, it is the intention of the syndicate to continue operations right along and keep "Uncle Joe" busy.

The Woodland Dairy Ltd., Edmonton, will have a car in Oyen, Tuesday, October 31, and will accept all classes of poultry. Enquire; J. O. Bale, Oyen.

Chicken Supper and Entertainment is Great Success

The chicken supper served in the United church basement last Saturday evening by the ladies aid, was well patronized and thoroughly enjoyed by those who partook of the good things provided. The staff of servers were kept busy for over two hours, and as a result of their efforts the aid will add to its coffers approximately $100.00.

After the supper, an entertainment was given in the church auditorium, the program being supplied by the following: Mr. F. Love and Miss Love, violin duet, selection of old time music. Miss Etta Hatch, solo. Mrs. J. P. Rorabeck, humorous reading. Mr. P. M. Marquardsen, violin selections. Mrs. R. Snell and Miss Eby, duet, and Rev. E. F. Kemp, a reading.

The ladies desire to express their appreciation and thanks to all who assisted in providing and serving the supper, to those who took part in the enjoyable program, and to all who attended the supper for their patronage.

Excel Items

Excel Ladies Aid held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. C. R. Gullekson on Thursday, October 11, a large number of members being present. It was decided not to put on the usual Thanksgiving supper owing to present conditions. Plans were made to bring in "Talent Money" for the next meeting. The aid took one of the cent-a-meal boxes to be used at the lunch hour. The visitors present were: Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Kemp, Mrs. Richmond of Blyth, Ont. and Mrs. J. Williams. Rev. Kemp gave a short but interesting talk on the salient facts of the United Church Mission work. He pointed out that the work goes on over the entire world and the sun never sets on this great work, which is divided into Anglo-Saxon and Foreign Missions and is carried on on land and sea, by Anglo-Saxon and native missionaries. The latter in their home lands far outnumber the foreign teachers. He also told about the schools, colleges, girls' work and hospitals in operation. A very dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. E. Gullekson, Mrs. James Barker and Mrs. E. Church.
